EXERCISE YOUR INFLUENCE

THOUGHTS ON MENTORING FROM JEFF JENNESS

One of the things we often overlook as “senior saints” is our ability to have positive influence over the younger generations. The collective experience of living life and striving to please God in our work and activities has transferable value that should not be wasted! Each of us has spheres of influence that include younger people, and today I am especially thinking of younger people who have entered ministry or are contemplating answering a call to ministry.

Almost weekly we are made aware of persons in our ministry family who are struggling with finances, either from lack of proper support by their church or employer or as a result of poor decisions. Unfortunately, if we took a survey, our ministry leaders’ finances probably would not look much healthier than those of the general population.

But it does not have to be nor should it be that way! As the church, we are called to a higher level. The Bible is a wonderful guide not only to life abundant in Christ, but also provides a financial blueprint for responsible living. Who knows this better than those in our ranks who have experienced life and ministry in depth over the years? Never discount the power you have in encouraging words or in admonitions of healthy financial living. While our government seems bent on irresponsible financial actions it magnifies the need for responsible and knowledgeable financial habits by the people of God.

All this to say... you have significant influence as a church leader! Seize the opportunity to influence Seize the opportunity to influence a younger person serving the church and help guide them...

a younger person serving the church and help guide them to resources that can set them on a course to good financial planning and family budgeting. Don't feel like you are inadequate. In fact, we're here to partner with you. Servant Solutions has helped to prepare financial planning resources to assist you when you counsel a younger minister. Go to our website (servantsolutions.org) and choose the Educational Resources under the Learning Center tab.

Familiarize yourself with the many personal financial tools there. The website contains LIVE FREE, a publication in partnership with Church of God Ministries that helps a family prepare a budget from a Biblical perspective. "Looking to The Future" will help a young person plan solidly for their future retirement.

We love each of our retirees! It blesses us to see the many ways in which our senior leaders serve the church effectively, even in retirement. 1 Corinthians 1:4-6 says this: "I always thank God for you because of His grace given you in Christ Jesus. For in Him you have been enriched in every way, in all your speaking and in all your knowledge, because our testimony about Christ was confirmed in you." That about sums it up! We love and treasure each of you and count it a privilege not only to serve you but to partner with you as we together, with the Lord's help and wisdom, have a positive influence on those who have today answered the call to serve. God bless you in all that you are doing in 2020.
